KIRKWOOD HOME & LANDSCAPE
Julie's Garden Design

Fall greetings!

It's time for warm autumn colors and crisp cool breezes!
Nothing beats refreshing a tired summer garden for the fall season and we are excited to get started!

Don't you love wallpaper in a powder room?! This home was a complete renovation and we will be showing you more at a later date. Stay tuned!

Our construction and landscape teams just wrapped up this patio, retaining wall and wood privacy wall to hide the storage area. A genius way to tuck the mower and kids toys out of sight!

We've been busy at the drawing board preparing designs for the fall planting season! Our software gives such a nice visual for our clients.

Kirkwood Home & Landscape + Julie's Garden Design is a proud sponsor of the KIRKWOOD GREENTREE FESTIVAL!
Bob has been on the committee for several years and is in charge of the musical entertainment as well as master of ceremonies!
We hope to see you there!
