Kirkwood Home & Garden and Julie's Garden Design Newsletter

Happy Holidays!

During this holiday season, this kitchen reminds us that quality, timeless materials create a foundation that can ground your space as styles shift. All that was needed was some creative layout design and updated stone and tile, and this kitchen got new life.

Stunning results when all three of our divisions come together to create an outdoor oasis! Cold winter days spent on this new patio will feel a bit warmer.

Thank you for a great year! Wishing you a peaceful holiday and bright start to the new year.

We appreciate your business!

We are a unique 3 function company that can handle everything for your home!
